Dedication

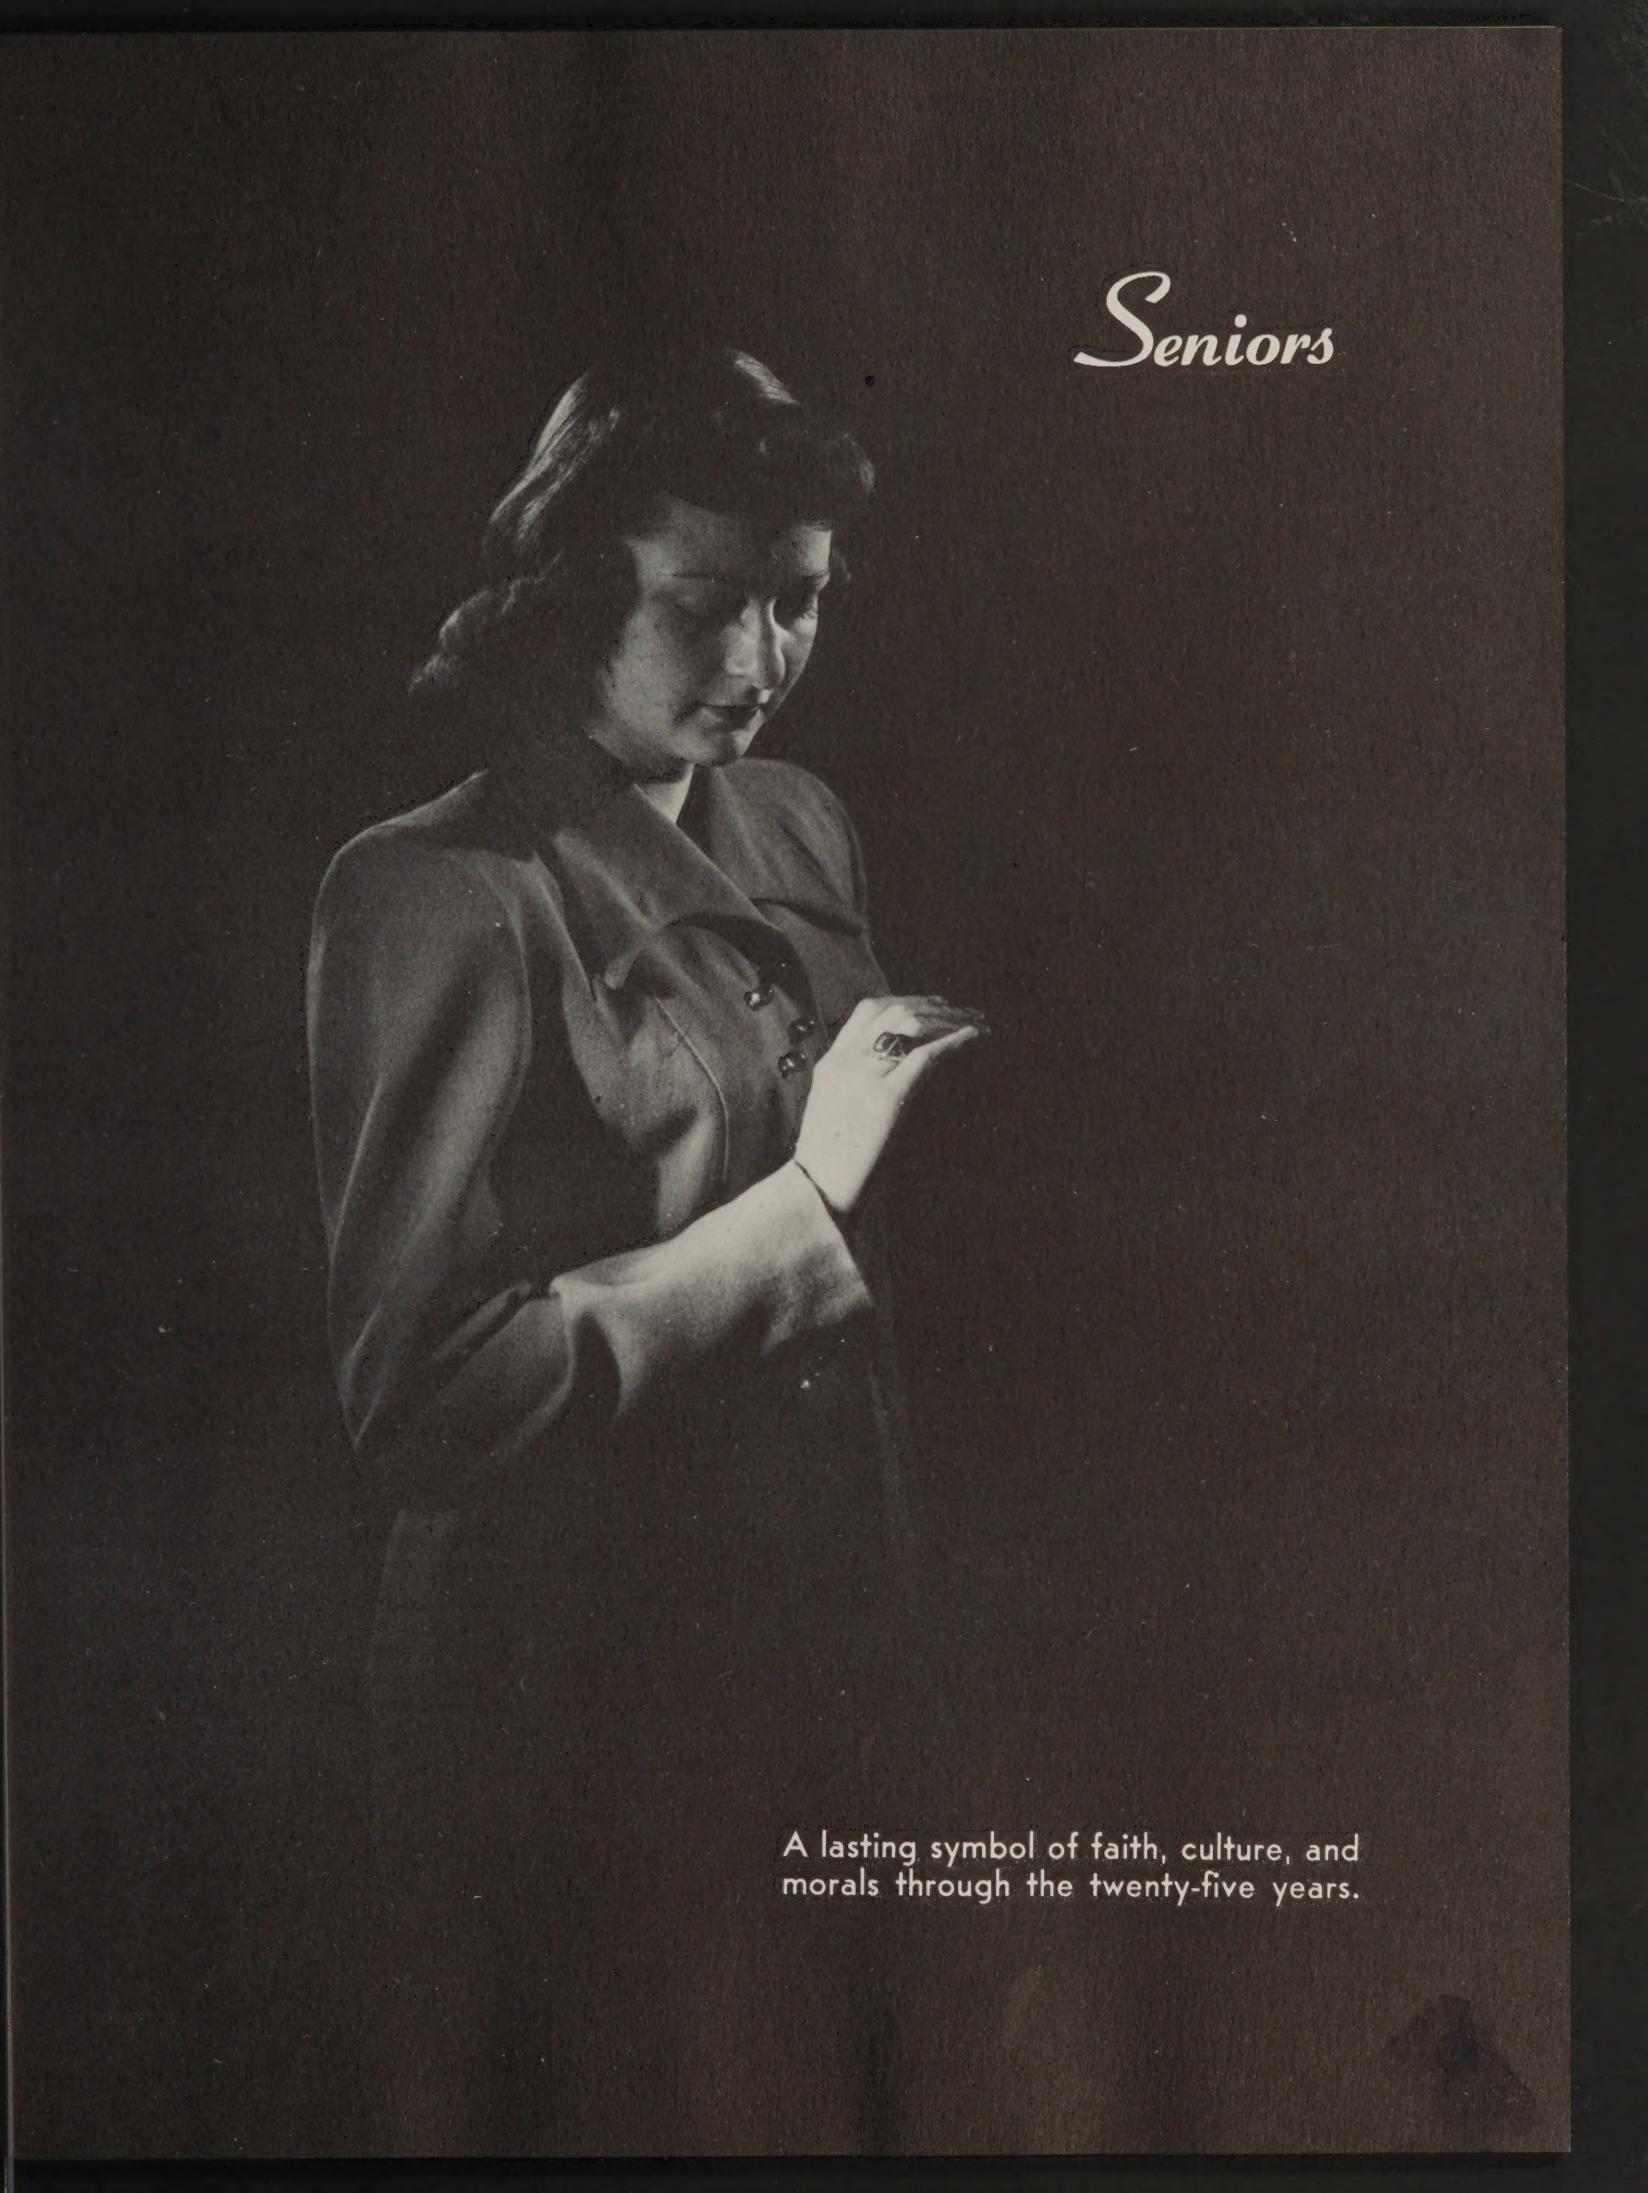

". . . All generations shall call me blessed."

Under the protecting shadow of Mary's mantle,
from generation unto generation,
through this twenty-fifth anniversary of Holy Family's first graduating class,
we find peace, joy, and perseverance.

It is with her help,
by her intercession, and through her motherly solicitude,
that we expect to rise out of the depths
and darkness of confusion and ignorance.

To the Blessed Virgin Mary through whom we shall reach her Divine Son,
we dedicate this yearbook.

"From generation unto generation"

Classes

The world lies at our fingertips through books.

Physics

The difference between static and current electricity puzzles these physics students—John Maroney, Margaret Mora, Louis King, James Winters.

History

Students of the American history class diligently take notes on the lecture given by Mr. Romeo.

Spanish

"Saludos Amigos." This Spanish class is at work on a translation more difficult than this one, "Greetings, Friends."

Speech

Speech class members listen to a play-back of their own recordings.

Journalism

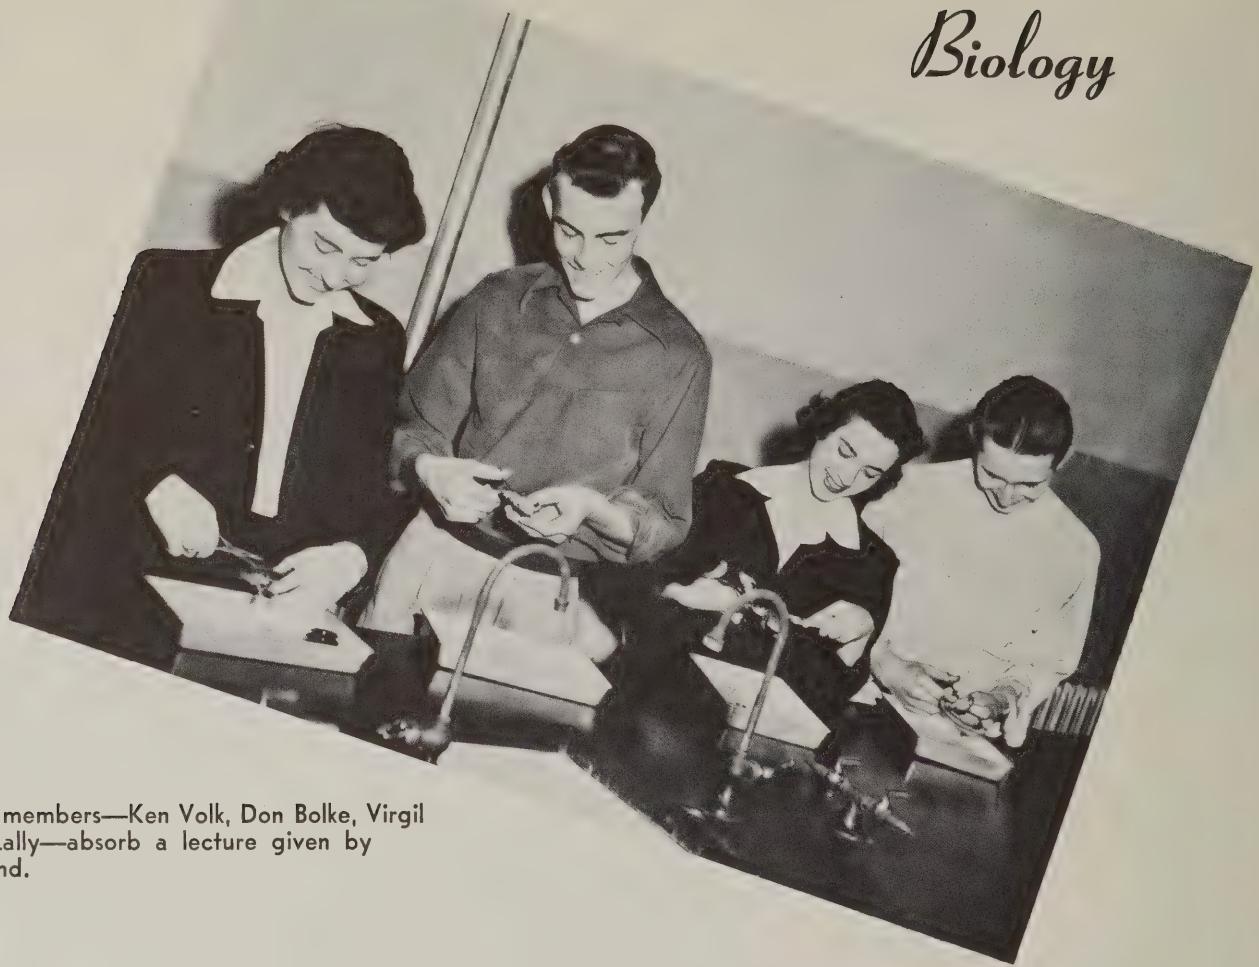

Assignments from a new Catholic daily stimulate thinking among journalism students.

Homemaking

Homemaking class seniors—Elaine Satterwhite, Rita Dastole, Carol Ploussard, and Betty Joy Tortorici—display their domestic arts.

Biology

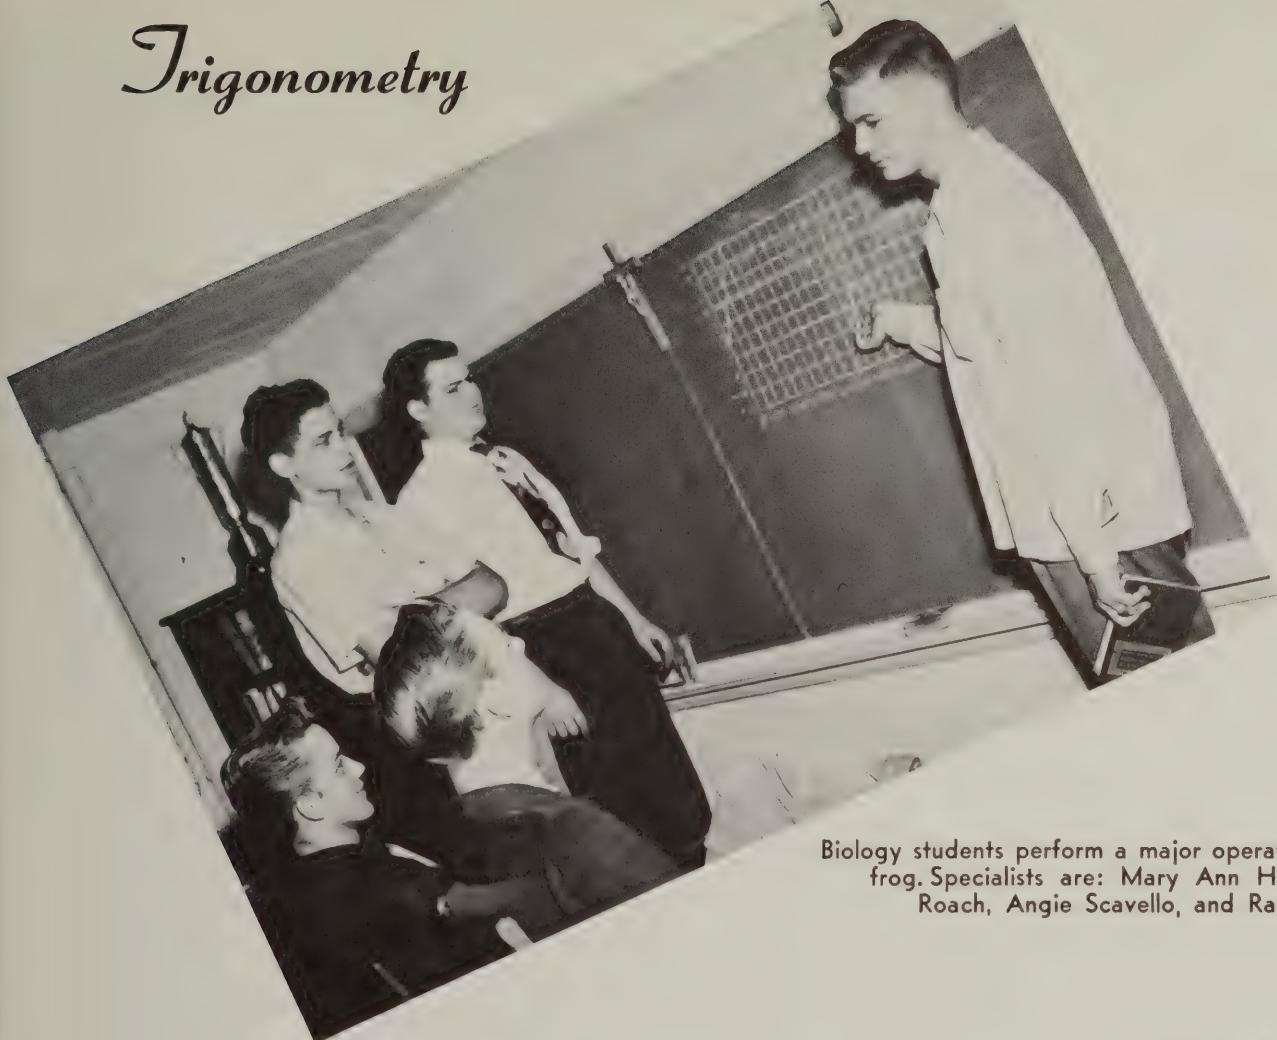

Trigonometry members—Ken Volk, Don Bolke, Virgil Harris, Ted Lally—absorb a lecture given by John Hammond.

Latin

Second year Latin contestants engage in an exciting quiz-down.

Trigonometry

Biology students perform a major operation on the frog. Specialists are: Mary Ann Heinrich, Ed Roach, Angie Scavello, and Ray Weiland.

The fourth year English class attentively listens to Gloria Fiorella relate the life of Edmond Campion.

English

Religion

Another proof that inspiration comes from the teacher, not the book. Left to right: Father Syrianey, Doris Marone, Jeanne Lucius, Barbara Giambrocco, Joanne Pergola, and Charlene Vander Perel.

THE TRULY EDUCATED MAN IS NOT EXCLUSIVELY THE PHYSICALLY PERFECT ONE, NOR THE MENTAL GYMNAST, NOR THE REFORMER. WE ARE TO LOOK FOR A COMBINATION OF A HEALTHFUL MIND, HEALTHFUL BODY, AND A SOUL QUICK TO RESPOND TO THE HIGHER THINGS OF LIFE. THE WELL-DEVELOPED TREE IS NOT SIMPLY ONE WELL ROOTED, NOR ONE WITH GIANT BRANCHES, NOR YET ONE RESPLENDENT WITH RICH FOLIAGE, BUT ONE WITH ALL OF THESE FEATURES UNITED. (By SISTER IRMA, S.S.J.)

Future stenographers pause only for a picture.

Activities

A year of triumph—our souls do magnify the Lord.

Our Lady's

A tribute to Mary in the month of May—Kay Malone, Sodality Prefect, crowns Our Lady.

Our Lady is surrounded by Sodality officers: Mary Ann Bohan, vice-prefect; Kay Malone, prefect; Rosemary Carney, treasurer. Unit heads—Norma Dunlap, Jeanne Bucher, Jeanne Lucius, Martha Gallegos, Anita Corazza; Theresa Matkovich—form a guard of honor. Absent from the picture are: Rae Mona Barnhart, secretary; and Marilyn Holzer, unit head.

Boys' Sodality officers light a vigil candle for Our Lady of Fatima—treasurer, George Martelon; prefect, Joe Sullivan; vice-prefect, Joe Burns; secretary, Dick Golesh.

Sodality

It's feeding time at the Infant of Prague Nursery. Arleen Bolke, Geraldine Maroney, Kathleen Keeley, Eleanor Weigel, and Joann Langer are among those who go regularly each week.

The snows delayed progress on the construction of the grotto of our Lady in the convent yard by the Boys' Sodality. Seniors are on duty with shovel, concrete mix, and rocks. Left to right: Don Bolke, Jack Hamill, John Maroney, Bob Moriarty, Ray Brisnehan.

The destiny of the student in the modern world was the theme of the three day retreat, January 29, 30, and 31 given by the Very Rev. William J.肯纳利, C.M., Rector of St. Thomas Seminary.

Student Council

Student Council president, Ray Brisnehan, forcefully introduces an issue to the Student Council.

HOLY FAMILY'S STUDENT COUNCIL OPERATES THROUGH FIVE COMMISSIONS: "COURTESY" PROMOTES COURTESY IN THE SCHOOL AND ATTENDS TO WELCOMING AND SEATING GUESTS AT ASSEMBLIES; "THRIFT" TAKES CARE OF CIVIC DRIVES SUCH AS COMMUNITY CHEST AND RED CROSS; "CO-OPERATION" ENCOURAGES STUDENT PARTICIPATION IN SOCIAL AND RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES; "CITIZENSHIP" LOOKS AFTER THE APPEARANCE OF THE BUILDING AND GROUNDS; "PLANNING" ARRANGES THE CALENDAR OF EVENTS.

Principal's Cabinet

Principal's Cabinet meets the cameraman in Sister Matthew Marie's office. Seated: Virginia Dickerson, treasurer; Ray Brisnehan, president; Elaine Satterwhite, secretary. Standing: Jerry Archer, Rosemary Carney, Len O'Harey, (vice-president), Jim Haberer, Phil Kennedy, Eileen Grace, Nancy Hamill, and Kathleen Mahoney.

Family living was explained by married people who are enthusiastic about their state, and by Father Regan, a sponsor of Cana Conferences. Left to right: Mr. and Mrs. Edward Miller, Mrs. John Downs, Mrs. Fred Kirk, Mr. John O'Hayre, and Rev. John Regan.

A VOCATION MEANS THAT THE WORK IS READY AND WAITING, BUT WE AS STUDENTS MUST FIND THOSE SIGNS LENDING TO IT. CAREER WEEK, FEBRUARY 5TH TO 9TH, WAS DIRECTED TO THIS PURPOSE, WITH CONSIDERATION OF THE OVER-ALL VOCATION OF A CHRISTIAN, THE CALL TO THE RELIGIOUS LIFE, TO FAMILY LIVING, AND TO PARTICULAR CAREERS.

Career Week

In an informal discussion group, Mr. William Smyth demonstrates the possibilities in photography to Pat Hill and Pat Farrell.

Library Club

These librarians have an efficient system—Greta Fleming, Norma Spitz, Donna Amman, June Bernard, Barbara Lind, and Jerry Larkin.

Barber of Seville

Presentation of the classic comedy, "The Barber of Seville," at Loretto Heights Drama Tournament February 10, insured Holy Family the permanent possession of the traveling trophy as a result of their third award.

N F L

President of the National Forensic League, Joe Sullivan, reads a communication. His able secretary, Marilyn Holzer, and treasurer, Kathleen Mahoney, are on the alert. Debates and speech meets feature other members of the N.F.L.

Pirates of Penzance

The "Orphan Boy" appears in the midst of the sherry-drinking pirates in Act I of Gilbert and Sullivan's "Pirates of Penzance," presented at Elitch's in May, 1950.

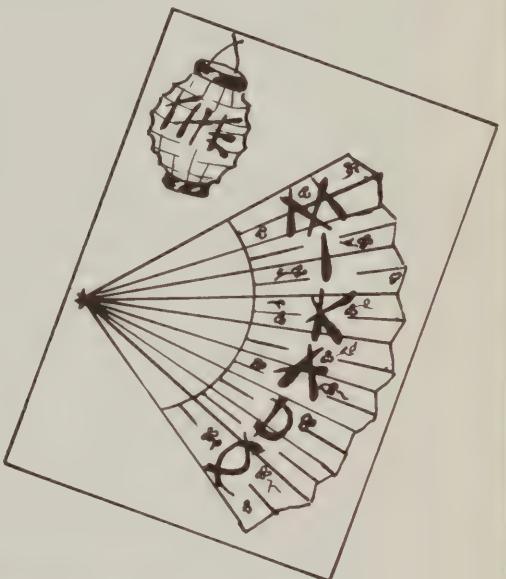

The Mikado

The Mikado, Dick Jones; Ko-Ko, Jack Hamill; Katisha, Barbara Mershon; Pish-Tush, Joe Sullivan.

FROM THE TOWN OF TITIPU COMES THIS CAST OF ROMANTIC FIGURES IN CHERRY BLOSSOM TIME. THE LOVE OF NANKI-POO, THE SON OF THE MIKADO OF JAPAN, FOR THE FAIR MAIDEN, YUM-YUM, ALMOST ENDS IN HIS BEING VICTIM OF THE LORD HIGH EXECUTIONER BUT THE SOLUTION TO HIS PROBLEM COMES WITH THE TOUCHING BALLAD, "WILLOW, TIT-WILLOW." ALL THIS HAPPENED AT ELITCH'S THEATER, MAY 21-22 WITH THE THIRD ANNUAL PRESENTATION OF A GILBERT AND SULLIVAN OPERETTA.

Nanki-Poo, Earl Daley; Peep-Bo, Diane Peer; Yum-Yum, Jean Peck; Pitti-Sing, Marlene Piscitella; Pooh-Bah, Ray Brisnehan.

King and Queen of Hearts

"The Kelly's for King and Queen of Hearts." Thus ran the sophomore campaign for their two candidates, both of whom won the largest number of penny votes for the mission fund. They were crowned on the afternoon of the junior play, March 5.

The Missions

"That you may know truth," the inscription on the banner of the Catholic Students' Mission Crusade, partially explains the interested investigation which this board makes of mission activities. In addition, they sponsor the annual musical review, "The Mission Follies," and conduct the King and Queen of Hearts contest.

Spanish Clubs

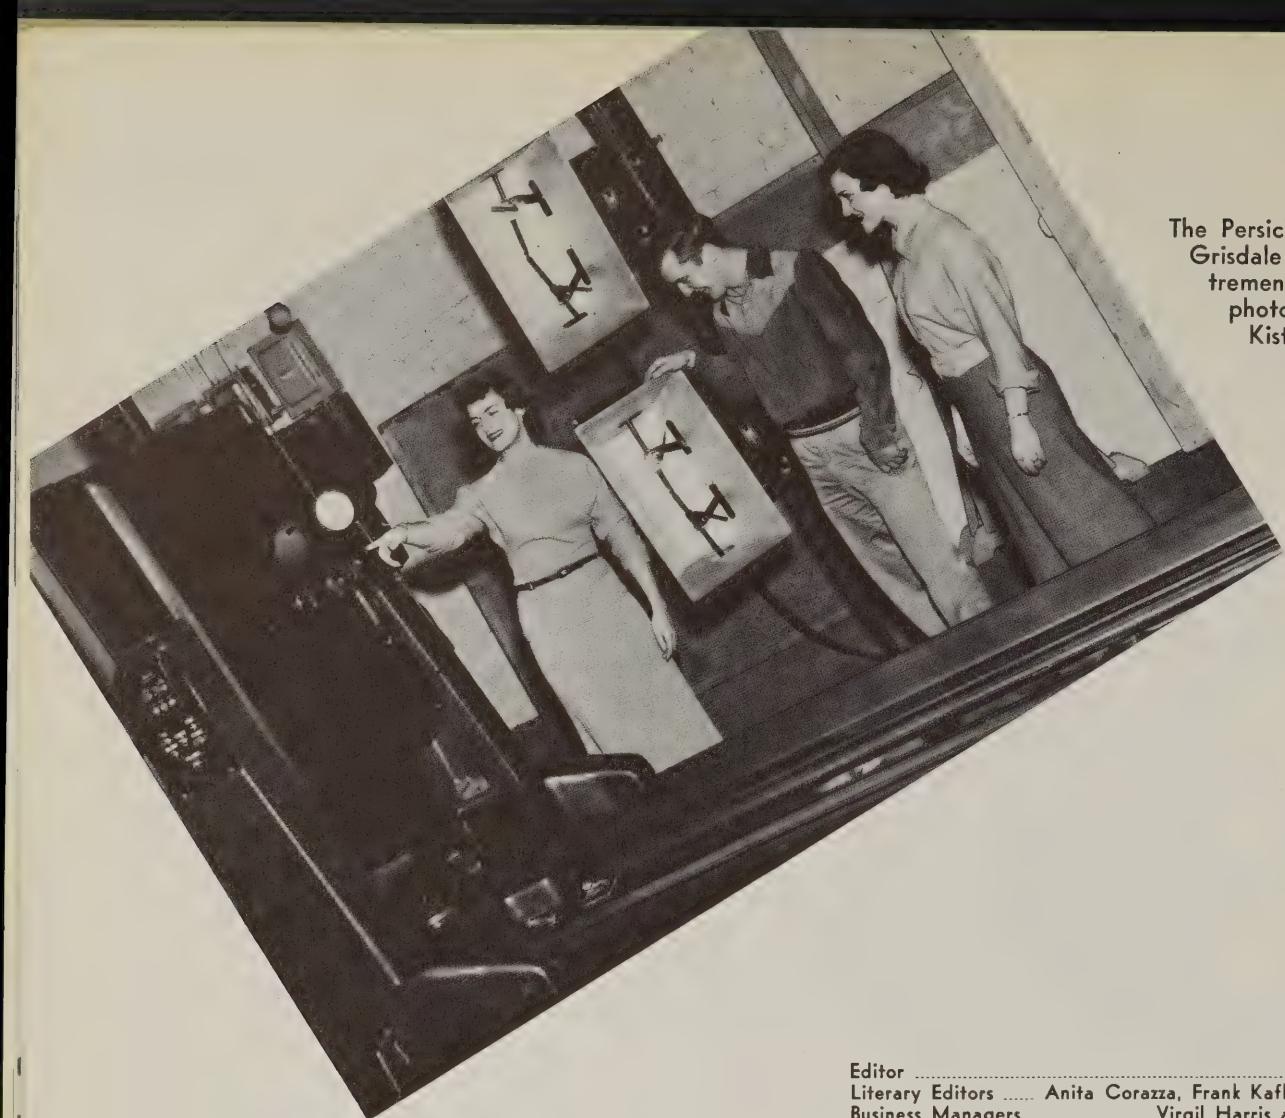

Boys' and girls' Spanish clubs spend some of their leisure hours learning songs and dances such as: La Chiapanecas, La Pinata, El Jarabe Tapatio—if you know what they mean. Some of these comprised an assembly commemorating Pan-American Day.

Science Club

Three types of engines—steam, gasoline, and water—are investigated by members of the Science Club. Other activities of the year include physics, chemistry, and biology experiments, and numerous scientific movies. Left to right: Louis Oestereicher, Rosemarie Black, Joanne Johns, Serafino Niccoli, Joe Burns, Dick Amolsch, Marjorie Harwood.

The Persichitte twins and W. Grisdale are amused at the tremendous cameras in the photography room at Kistler's.

LAKWOOD COUNTRY CLUB, APRIL 26, WAS THE PERFECT SETTING FOR THE JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM, WHICH BECAME A DINNER DANCE FOR THE FIRST TIME THIS YEAR. IN QUEENLY SPLENDOR, MARY JANE O'HAYRE REIGNED ON THIS NIGHT ONE NEVER FORGETS.

Senior

Remember the Day, February 19! The "Mighty Seniors" arrived at school in ski suits, boarded special buses—their destination, Winter Park.

Ditch Day

Don Anderson, Carol Ploussard, John Maroney, and Sally Lampert start out together.

At left: Louise Coutts, Marlene Borelli, Rosemary Pomponio, and Loretta Lawlor pause to make necessary adjustments.

At right: Georgiana Lossaso, Rosemary Pomponio, Doris Marone, Gloria Fiorella, and Louise Coutts get the feel of the skis.

Loretto Heights Press Convention

Jack Hamill stops outside the front entrance to compare notes with Joan and Jean Persichitte.

High School students from schools as far east as Illinois and as far south as New Mexico joined in discussion groups, met at formal conferences, enjoyed themselves at a dance and a banquet as part of the Press Convention at Loretto Heights Feb. 1 and 2. "Propagation Not Mere Propaganda" was the theme of their two day study aided by Dean O'Sullivan of the Marquette University School of Journalism, and other notable guests.

Sports

A reward for the way the Tigers played the game.

Our Queen

It is a moment of glory as Father Koontz crowns Her Majesty, Elaine Satterwhite. One of the attendants is waiting to present Father with the Tiger football made of chrysanthemums.

Her Attendants

They are off to the game on the royal float, the queen, her attendants, the crown bearer and pages. Top row: Esther Frazzini, Beverly Head, Elaine Satterwhite, Joanne Pergola, Ardella Zehnder. Bottom row: Danny Archer, Barbara Kasch, and Harold Vanscoy.

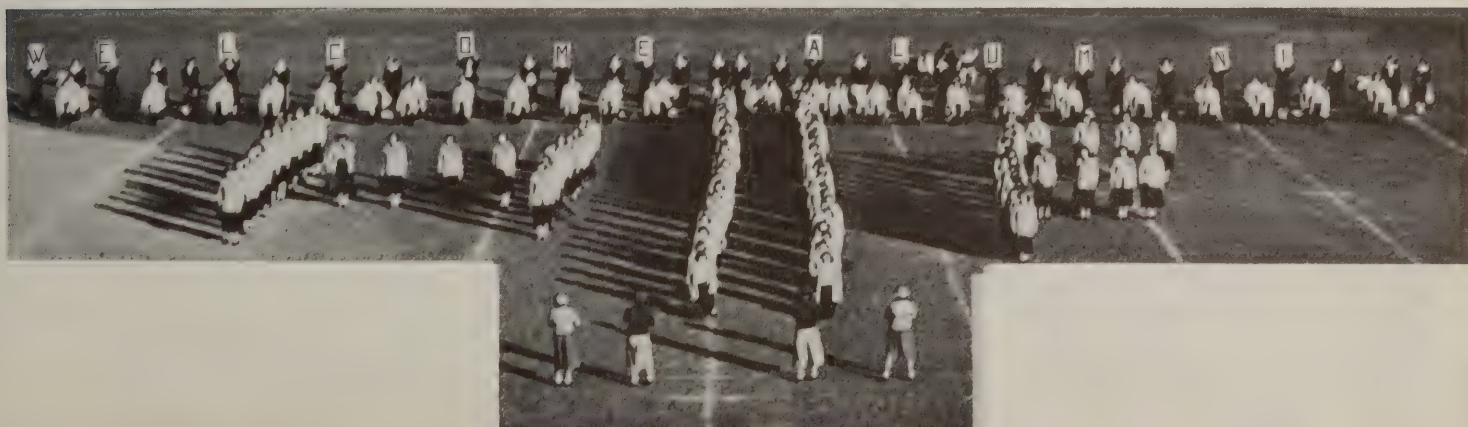

Victory smiles—the score was 19-13 over St. Francis'—are displayed by Tiger cheerleaders: Rosemary Pomponio, Rosemary Carney, Mary Moran, and Doris Marone.

Homecoming Victory

This saucy Tiger grinned from the homecoming dance programs at Knights of Columbus Hall that November 5th evening.

Pep Club in T formation, wearing their new gold sweaters, welcome the Alumni.

Pep Club

Especially busy during Homecoming preparations are Pep Club officers: Ardella Zehnder, treasurer; Beverly Head, secretary; (Elaine Satterwhite, homecoming queen;) Joanne Pergola, president; Esther Fazzini, vice-president.

Present at every game. Who? Holy Family cheer leaders—Doris Marone, Rosemary Carney, Mary Moran and Rosemary Pomponio, of course.

Ready for the homecoming parade, senior girls, wearing huge purple "mums", array themselves on their class float.

"London Bridge is falling down" as Jerry Tancredo and Tony Acierno scramble for the ball in the thrilling game with Cathedral.

Basketball

Baseball

The season hasn't as yet begun as the baseball nine from last year's team suit up for THE VISTA. First row: Jim Downing, John Young, Ed Musso, Jerry Tancredo. Second row: Coach Martin Martelli, Manager Serafino Niccoli, Tony Acierno, Ed McAvoy, Jack Isenhart, Dominic Stone, Dick Golesh, and Father Koontz, director of athletics.

Boxers line up under the frame where the speed bag will hang when the ring season opens. First row: Bill McClimans, Leroy Reichardt, Len O'Hayre, Claude Arnold, Clem Huer. Second row: Jack Monahan, Bob Stephens, Keith Coleman, Ed McAvoy, and Phil DeAngelis.

*Beyond
the Horizon*

MOMENTOUS chapters in world history are being written today . . . it is your privilege to be a living part of this history. What lies beyond the clouds that darken the horizon in this Year of Our Lord 1951, no man knows. But we do know that our greatest hope is in the enlightened thinking and courage of free men and women in helping to restore the nobility of mankind. This responsibility is, in part, yours. Kistler's — printers of your '51 Vista — wish you good fortune as you stand on the threshold of your new world.

Dear Ted,
It's really been a pleasure knowing you these years. I hope our friendship will continue through the years. I'll always remember you as "Dear Ted," the Sloper. Best of luck always, Ted.
